To whom it may concern:

We wish to express our disagreement with the proposed settlement in the Microsoft antitrust case. Weak conduct remedies such as those proposed will do nothing to change Microsoft's anti-competitive and anti-innovative business practices. Equally disturbing is the proposal that Microsoft should be able to choose part of the team responsible for enforcement of the settlement (weak as it may be.) This is equivalent to letting a convicted felon choose one of his friends to be his parole officer.

Very simply, Microsoft broke the law, and must be punished.

sincerely,
